Notice

IS hereby given that 21 villages owned by the Raja of Deo, situated in the district of Gaya, or so many of them as may be necessary, will be sold, either in one lot or separately, at the Gaya Collectorate, by public auction, at noon on Thursday, the 12th September 1895, for liquidation of debts and liabilities against his estate. The upset price will be 20 times the thika rental (or in the case of 8 villages now held sir, the last thika rental) less Government revenue and cesses, the aggregate net rental being Rs. 19,549. Purchasers will get credit for any peslgi payable to thikadars on expiry of existing leases. One-fourth of the purchase-money must be deposited by the purchasers at the time of sale either in cash or in Government promissory notes, and the remainder, together with 75 per cent. of unbarred arrears shown as due from the villages, will be payable within 15 days of the sales being confirmed by the Commissioner, to whose confirmation the sales are subject. If the full purchase-money is not paid, then the deposit will be liable to forfeiture. For particulars, apply to the Manager, Deo Estate, Gaya.

R. E. HOWARD, Manager, Deo Encumbered Estate, Gaya.

REVISED ADVERTISEMENT.

A Dictionary of the Economic Products of India. By DR. GEO. WATT, C.I.E.,

Reporter on Economic Products.

Published under the authority of the Government of India in the Revenue and Agricultural Department.

The first five volumes and Vol. VI, Parts I, II, III & IV of the Dictionary are now ready at the Office of Superintendent of Government Printing, No. 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta, and will be supplied to non-subscribers on receipt of the price for the complete set, which is Rs. 45 in India, and 3 guineas in England (exclusive of the Index, for which a separate charge will be made): packing and postage, in India, 8 annas per volume; for England, Rs. 2-6 per volume. For copies bound in half calf or half morocco, Rs. 6 and 8 shillings, respectively, will be charged extra for the whole set.

The Dictionary is intended to deal with the products of India—animal, vegetable, and mineral; each product being treated after a uniform plan, the paragraphs of which give the scientific, vernacular, and European names; habitat or source; history; properties and uses (both chemical and industrial); trade statistics; markets, &c. The work is arranged alphabetically according to scientific nomenclature, but commercial and important vernacular names are also given as cross references, so that little difficulty need be experienced in finding the account of a product even when its scientific name is unknown to the reader.

An important feature of the Dictionary consists in the fact that derived information is in every instance given under quotation marks, and with a reference to the original publication. Numerous contributors have, however, furnished the results of new discoveries and confirmed the vernacular names, so that the Dictionary is not only a complete compilation of published information, but has been brought abreast of the most recent inventions and discoveries.

Volume I contains the letters A and B, and consists of 559 royal octavo pages; Vol. II embraces the letter C in 689 pages; Vol. III contains the letters D, E, F and half of G. Vol. IV latter half of G to middle of L; and Vol. V contains the latter half of L to end of O; Vol. VI, (which will consist of four parts), Part I, contains letters P to R. The whole work will, it is expected, be completed in nine volumes (including Parts II to IV of Vol. VI) during the current year; but a tenth volume may also be issued, consisting of an Index to all the vernacular and other names contained in the Dictionary. The Index will practically be a Glossary of the vernacular and European names of the plants, animals and minerals of India, and as such will be a work of reference, which, it is hoped, may prove of considerable value.
